Dear Families,

In some ways it is hard to believe that we just wrapped up the second week of the year and our first full week with our kindergarten students! I am really impressed with how so many of our students have quickly learned new routines and have adjusted back to life at Alameda.

This morning we had a great turn out at the first Principal's coffee of the year. Thanks to those of you who were able to attend. It was nice to see so many new faces! One critical item that was discussed was how important it is to have open, honest, and positive communication between school and home. Thank you in advance for reading these lengthy Friday emails, for paying
