Hispanic Heritage Week, which began in 1968 under President Lyndon Johnson, was expanded to National Hispanic Heritage Month by President Ronald Reagan and enacted into law in 1988 to cover a 30-day period starting on September 15, the day which represents the anniversary of independence for five Latin American countries;
- B. No matter the term one chooses to use, whether it be Hispanic, Latino, Latinx or Chicano/a, we speak of people whose history is rich with those who positively influence and enrich our nation, our society, our region, our state, and our schools through their entrepreneurship, commitment to community service, deep value of justice and liberty, and social and cultural life;
- C. Hispanic and Latinos have made profound contributions and continue to make advances in education, medicine, art, culture, and public service and been a consistent and vital influence in our nation's growth and prosperity;
- D. More than sixteen percent of enrolled students in the Portland Public Schools are Hispanic and/or Latino;
- E. Over eight percent of our Hispanic and/or Latino employees contribute to the accomplishment of PPS's mission;
- F. Understanding Hispanic/Latino history is an important part of celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month;
- G. Portland Public Schools has a Racial Education Equity Policy that states our commitment to affirmatively overcome the educational barriers that have resulted in a persistent, unacceptable achievement gap for students of color and to give each student the opportunity and support to meet his or her highest potential;
- H. Closing opportunity gaps while raising achievement for all students is the top priority of the Board of Education, the Superintendent and all district staff;
- I. The Portland Public Schools Board of Education believes each and every student is to be celebrated and appreciated for the distinct and vibrant contributions made by sharing cultures, language, ideas, beliefs and values within a school community.

RESOLUTION

- 1. The Portland Public Schools Board of Education hereby promotes September 15th through October 15th as Hispanic Heritage Month and encourages staff, students, and community to observe, recognize, and celebrate the culture, heritage, and economic contributions of Hispanics to our Oregon and the United States through culturally relevant activity, and to learn from the past and understand the experiences that have shaped the United States.
