I. Introduction

The Board, Superintendent and staff of Portland Public Schools support all students in achieving their very highest educational and personal potential. District policy affirms the diversity and worth of all individuals and their roles in society and prohibits discrimination on the basis of age, color, creed, disability, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation. BP 1.80.020.

The Board recognizes that groups from the greater community provide non-school related activities that support children and families. The Board encourages community groups whose goals forward the mission of the district to provide a range of opportunities for our students.

While encouraging community sponsored activities, it is the responsibility of the Board and the district to assure that district resources are focused on student achievement and to assure the least amount of disruption or distraction from class work during school hours. This policy defines the
