If Yes, List the date and all cities and states in which you have a criminal conviction:

Under District policy the District is required to deny volunteer privileges to anyone convicted of certain felonies and misdemeanors (those listed in ORS. 342.143). In addition the District reserves the right to deny volunteer privileges to persons based on the nature and recentness of crimes and overall criminal record. Security Services or the school Principal may revoke a volunteer's privileges at any time if the volunteer's presence is considered disruptive or unsafe to the learning environment.

A copy of crimes listed in ORS. 342.143 is available at your school or online at www.pps.k12.or.us under Departments/Security Services.

Portland Public Schools strives to ensure a safe learning environment for our children and staff. Therefore, any person that refuses a criminal background check will not be allowed to volunteer. There are no exceptions.

I consent to a check of criminal/civil records by Portland Public Schools.
