

Literacy & Language Arts Update

May 5, 2015 Ewan Brawley & Susan Payne Instruction, Curriculum & Assessment

5/6/2015

Teaching & Learning in PPS

"Every student succeeds, regardless of race or class"

Evolving Adoption Process

Teachers and Reading Programs

Towards a design that is wallhiifint janiitika	, na s an tina ang san sa	wi n then "	ts, student growt

ana	······································	Conting illing m aning an y	Linn ^a 19 - an Raillinna M Ruggingh 11 - Airth	Window (1000
				m william
an adalah ya	in in an India in Antici tation	a rtina- alle a a rgai	n. _{Will} auddiaeth		0
					an an aithe
			a an	₩°₩ "^ « biomi játið kom
an Minister Andread and Andread	an	Manan Ma Manana Manana M	¹ Maramanan Milan Ka ngu alling wave where a south were an arrived to the south of	Mar - Antre - A
and the state of t	a n Manana an Tanàna aminina amin

6-12 LA CMAAC

40 participants from a range of schools & assignments
13 Middle School
14 High School
2 Higher Ed Partners
6 TOSAs
2 Administrators

Instruction, Curriculum & Assessment English as a Second Language Department of Dual Language Special Education Equity

The CMAAC Work:

Elicit input from 6-12 Language Arts and ELD teachers.

Design a two-year plan to maximize teacher and public input and piloting.

Prioritize the 6-12 ELA standards to inform the selection process.

Draft mission and vision statements and beliefs about instruction to guide the work.

Examine and evaluate materials using specific criteria.

